A.H.S. Newscast

By Peggy Wooten

Hello there!

Here we are again after a most joyous holiday. We all found much delights in our Thanksgiving dinners, and our successful hunting trips.

But after our nice holiday, it is now time for good- old studying. Reports will be going out soon, and we do have to keep our promises of working harder this six weeks.

Our S. C. A. president, "Bill" Carson, will lead a discussion at the district meeting of the S. C. A. at Rustburg today. Others attending this meeting will be Frank Hanenkrat, Barbara Almond, Mrs. H. W. Runkle and Peggy Wooten.

Mr. Joseph Byrd has been drilling his basketball boys for the past two weeks, and finds that there will be another winning season, if all goes well. Those on the squad are as follows: "Boots" Carter, Garland Dess, Maynard Beane, Richard Holderman, Bradley Babcock, Hunter Chilton, Robert Beale, Buddy Conner, Fountain Conner, Joey George, Tommy O'Brien, and Raymond Ferguson.

A representative from Thompson's Studios in Richmond took the club pictures for the annual Tuesday, and I do hope everyone had their picture taken with at least two or more clubs.

Have you seen the peg-board display in our school library? This board was made by Floyd Fleshman and Ralph Reynolds. The display is on our State's History and Government. It will be well worth your time to go in and see it. We should all strive to get a better knowledge of our State's background and government. The library welcomes anyone who would wish to come in to see the display, or see the many new books that are now available.

The F. B. L. A. members are serving as secretaries to our teachers. Each teacher picks a member whom she wishes to have as her secretary. We wish these girls much success now and in their future jobs.

A new club has been organized at our school, the Beta Club. The qualifications for membership are good character and mentality, creditable achievement, and commendable attitude. This club is affiliated with the National Beta Club, which is a leadership - service organization. Its purpose is to stimulate effort, reward achievement, and to encourage and assist in the continuation of education after high school. Its sponsor is Mrs. Ivey Holland. The members will be announced next week.

An exhibit of prize photographs, including the top winner of the Ninth Annual National High School Photographic Awards, will be shown December 5-9 in our high school library. For the past 9 years Eastman Kodak Company has held a national contest for Kodak pictures, open to all high school students. These pictures include activities, both in and out of school. The public is invited to visit our library, and see the exhibit from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. any day next week.

The Junior Class will be going on their trip to Williamsburg, Jamestown and Yorktown tomorrow. They seem to be quite busy getting ready.

Officers of the Forensic Club are as follows:
President, Sandra O'Brien
Vice-president, Sam Kerr
Secretary and treasurer, Madeline Gulli
Reporter, Frances Ramsey.

This is all the news of A. H. S. for this week.

Peggy.

Thanksgiving passed of very nicely with many family gatherings being enjoyed. Thanksgiving has been kept a long time. The first Thanksgiving was observed more than three hundred years ago by the Pilgrims, who came over in the Mayflower. When harvest time came and the crops were gathered, Governor Bradford ordered a Thanksgiving feast. The women spent many days preparing the feast. As guests there were friendly Indians. They brought their wild turkeys. They had prayers and sermons and songs of praise.

We were sorry to hear of Mr. Walker Carnefix getting his leg broken.

Miss Dorothy Beasley spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Beasley.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watson on Saturday night were Mr. T. C. Harvey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Beasley and Miss Dorothy Beasley.

Mrs. T. C. Harvey, Mazie and Harriette and Mrs. Ida T. Morris visited in the home of Mrs. Willie Moses on Thanksgiving.

Miss Mazie Harvey visited Mrs. Lester B. Harvey on Monday night.

We are glad to hear that Miss Merle Reynolds, who has been quite sick, is feeling much better.

The hunting season has been favored with beautiful weather, and the hunters have thoroughly enjoyed it, and have killed a nice lot of game.

Tobacco is being marketed now. The farmers are getting very good prices.

Mr. Lewis Harvey and Mrs. L. H. Watson visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Monday.

Cold weather has surely come. Farmers are getting in winter wood and killing hogs.

STREET STREWN WITH MONEY

Louisville, Ky.- A bandit, fleeing with $15,512 in currency which he had stolen from a bank, littered a city block with $8,800 in currency when the paper bag, in which he had placed the money, became weakened by the rain and disintegrated. A truck driver who happened along at the time called on employees of a nearby appliance firm to help him gather up the $8,800 and return it to the bank.

Mrs. Eisenhower says she's for retirement.

Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers! After such a pleasant Thanksgiving we are again busy at our studies and ready to close out the second six weeks period, next week! How time flies. It will soon be time for Santa. From this cold weather, he is well on his way from the North Pole with the cold winds accompanying him.

The Harvest Festival was a great success. A capacity audience attended and enjoyed the program on November 22. All classes were represented on the program: Grades 1 and 2 doing a folk dance; grades 3 and 4 the Tom Thumb Wedding, and a rhythm dance; grades 5 a Puritan scene; grade 6 a special chorus; grades 7 and Indian dance; the high school the Greek—Roman god and goddesses scene, autumn leaves, and the skit around which the story was woven. Printed programs with advertisements solicited were most attractive. Each class had a series of activities to make the financial returns of our festival larger in order to carry out our school activity program. Everyone is to be commended for their cooperation. Mrs. O. W. Smith served as General Chairman, and Miss N. F. Williams as Harvest Program chairman.

Last Wednesday, November 23, the high school girls heard personnel from the WACS and WAVES give much helpful information on qualifications, duties, salary, history, advancement ratings, travel experiences, recreational facilities, boot training, retirement benefits, and procedure to follow if interested. Chief Petty Officer 1st Class Barbara Hines represented the WAVES and Lientenant Anne Smith represented the WACS.

The girls' basketball team played Tuesday afternoon. The score was 16-10, with the "Bluebirds" winning over the "Yellow Wasps." As the season fast approaches, basketball is again very important.

The boys have an interesting basketball schedule this year. The first game will be December 6, against Susie Gibson High of Bedford. The girls will play the preliminaries. The schedule is as follows:

Home Games
Dec. 6, Bedford
Dec. 14, Northside High
Jan. 6, Buckingham (Carter Woodson)
Feb. 8, Campbell
Feb. 13, Moton
Feb. 17, Lexington
Feb. 22, Waynesboro

Games Away
Dec. 7, Campbell
Dec. 9, Northside
Dec. 20, Bedford
Jan. 4, Charlotte Court House
Jan. 11, Lexington
Jan. 13, Moton
Jan. 31, Buckingham
Feb. 24, Waynesboro.

Homecoming will be held February 17, here, when "Miss Carver-Price" will be crowned at half time during the basketball game between Lexington and Carver. You will hear more about this later.

The Third Grades gave an account of a very enjoyable holiday period. They also stated that they were very happy to return to school on Monday morning. Willis McCoy reported a nice trip to Charlottesville, Virginia, visiting his aunt and uncle. He also journeyed to Roanoke, Virginia. Rosa Robinson spent a portion of her holiday period in Philadelphia, visiting her brother. She also reported a nice trip.

The Fourth Grades wish to thank everyone who helped them to make a contribution toward the "Thanksgiving Festival." Gilbert L. James, Jr. won the first prize for having brought in the largest amount of money. The second prize was won by Thomas Thornton. The third prize was won by Nancy Moore. The group that brought in the largest amount of money was led by Gloria Fitch, namely: Carol Andrews, Margaret Fleshman, Ruby Lamberth, Nancy Moore, Ellen Jane Palmer, and Frances Ann Gafford.

The Sixth Grade under Mrs. T. W. Hamlet sponsored the Thanksgiving program last Wednesday. The play, "Little Mr. Goose and Mr. Plum Pudding" was enjoyed by all. Stephen Goode as Big Indian Chief gave a sola dance. All the class is happy to see the pictures which came in today. Each of the class members is giving one of the pictures to Mrs. Hamlet, since they have been with her two years. All of the class reported a thankful Thanksgiving.

Until next week, our thought: "A talent can be cultivated in tranquility; a character only in the rushing stream of life."
